Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 17, 2009

TO: Honorable Tommy Merritt, Chair, House Committee on Public Safety

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3712 by Bolton (Relating to compensatory time off for public security officers employed by the Department of Public Safety.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code, Chapter 662 by adding public security officers to the list of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) officers who can earn holiday compensatory time for holidays that fall on the weekend. The bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

DPS anticipates no significant fiscal impact to the agency.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
